It's official, downtown Grand Rapids' newest retail hot spot is now open for business.

Congratulations to Rosa Piccione and Gina VanGessel – proud owners of new (and fabulous) clothing boutique, Lia Rose.

The store is conveniently connected to the ever-popular "Gina's Boutique" and smartly structured to allow customers to shop both stores at the same time! A testament to both Rosa and Gina's impeccable taste, the boutique is stocked with timeless and chic pieces designed to fit the "average woman."

As a loyal Gina's customer, I received a VIP invite to the red-carpet ribbon cutting festivities last night. Check out my photos.
